

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is very important to us. We at Preferred Population Health Management, LLC have developed this Policy to better help you understand how we collect, use, communicate and disclose personal information. We use your personal information only for providing and improving the site. By using this site, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance to this policy.

When personal information is collected, we will identify the purposes for the collection of that information either before or at the time of collection. That information will be collected by lawful and fair means and, where appropriate, with the knowledge and consent of the individual concerned.

Like many sites, we collect information that your browser sends whenever you visit our site. This information may include your computer's Internet Protocol ("IP") address, browser type, browser version, the pages of our site that you visit, the time and date of your visit, the time spent on those pages and other statistics.

No method of transmission of data over the internet is 100% secure, but we will protect personal information obtained by reasonable security safeguards against loss or theft, unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification. Also, your personal information will never be shared or sold to third party sites, applications or people.

Any information obtained directly from the user is sent to secure Email inboxes with access limited only to Preferred Population Health Management, LLC employees, executives, and contractors.

Information regarding management of personal information, including our policies and practices, will be readily available at any time.

Preferred Population Health Management, LLC is committed to protecting the confidentiality of personal information obtained.
